Our USB memory stick recordings are available on application. We also provide a dedicated USB player for use by the listener for as long as is required. These memory sticks are sent through the post via "Articles for the Blind" free of charge and returned the same way. To join our service we require our name address and telephone number, along with the completed form overleaf, in order to make use of the free postal service provided by Royal Mail.

By submitting this application you confirm that you agree to the Oswestry Talking Newspaper (OTN) holding your details electronically for use only by OTN. Your details will not be passed onto any third party and information will be deleted when you no longer require the service
